

San Bernardino 16th Street SDA Church

CHURCH SCHOOL BOARD MEMBER

PURPOSE

The Church School Board member will be a designated member of the school that church supports within our church school constituency. They will be responsible for representing and having a voice for students attending the school from the San Bernardino area. They will also be responsible to play a role in supporting and extending the mission of the school by attending meetings and actively participating. They will also be the primary means by which information is given to the church regarding our supported school.

RESPONSIBLE TO:

Youth & Family Life Pastor

MAJOR RESPONSIBILITIES

The school board has authority only when it functions as a group in official meetings. Individual members do not speak for the board. The school board has many functions and the official responsibilities will be outlined by the conference education department and the church school board chairperson and member churches. You are expected to regularly attend the board meetings and give voice to the church on this board.
